RESIGNATION OF AUDITOR

The Board announces that PricewaterhouseCoopers (“PwC”) has resigned as the auditor of the Company with effect from 17 May 2021 as the Company and PwC could not reach a consensus on the audit fee of the Company for the year ended 31 March 2021.

The Company is incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands and to the knowledge of the Board there is no requirement under the laws of the Cayman Islands for the resigning auditor to confirm whether or not there is any circumstance connected with its resignation which it considers, should be brought to the attention of the Company’s members and creditors. PwC has therefore not issued such confirmation.

The Board and the audit committee of the Company (the “Audit Committee”) have also confirmed that, save for the audit fee for the year ended 31 March 2021, there are no disagreements or unresolved matters between PwC and the Company, and that there are no other matters in respect of the change of auditor which should be brought to the attention of the shareholders of the Company.

The Board and the Audit Committee are of the view that the change of auditor would enable the Company to carry out effective cost control and reduce the overall operating expenses of the Company to better cope with the future business development of the Group and is in the interest of the Company and its shareholders as a whole.

The Board believes that the change of auditor will not have any significant impact on the progress of the annual audit for the year ended 31 March 2021.

The Board would like to take this opportunity to express its warm welcome to Mazars on its appointment as the auditor of the Company.
